Daughter Of Robert Howe Killed

El Verano Man Chooses Jail Sentence For Dry Offense

District Initiation Of Y. M. I. Brought Many Visitors Here

TWO RAIDS ON MONDAY YIELD LIQUOR EVIDENCE

Woman Swears to Compaint Which Leads to Arrest of P. Rossi and Mrs. Vergozoni.

A complaint signed by the wife of a Sonoma resident who declared her husband was getting liquor from Phil Rossi and at the Bellevue Hotel, El Verano, led to a raid on both places by Deputy Sheriff Ryan, Deputy Ferd Eberhardt and Constable John Mohr last Monday. Evidence was secured from Rossi's home and also at the Bellevue and as a result Rossi and Mrs. Vergozoni were arrested. The warrant called for the arrest of Mrs. J. B. Mini, which was the former name of Mrs. Vergozoni, owner of the Bellevue property.

The basement of Rossi's house, which contained considerable wine in addition to hams, bacon and other provisions, was placed under lock and key.

When both defendants appeared before Judge Small, they plead guilty as charged. Rossi was given the alternative of a $300 fine or 50 days in the county jail. He chose the latter in preference to parting with the coin and is said to have been glad to get away from some of the "friends" who pestered him for drinks. His son, however, refused to let him stay in jail and paid his fine.

Mrs. Vergozoni was given a suspended sentence under the promise that she would leave the valley. She is making an effort to dispose of the big hotel which is said to be quite heavily encumbered.

Previous raids in which the Rossis figured involved Al Rossi, who formerly conducted the pioneer resort, which was ordered closed by the district attorney and later was re-opened by Rossi's mother as a grocery store.

WILL DEDICATE NEW BALL PARK SUNDAY

Seals to Play Santa Rosa Opening Game March 9th; Olympic Club Delegates To Be Present.

The new base ball park at Boyes Springs, declared by the San Francisco Seals now in training there to be the greatest training ground in America, will be dedicated Sunday, March 9 with appropriate ceremonies. The Seals will play the Rosebuds of Santa Rosa and the public be given its first opportunity to see some of the stars of the San Francisco base ball club in real action on the new diamond.

Fifty members of the San Francisco Olympic Club are coming to Sonoma Valley for the big day and will be welcomed into camp by Doc Straub and George Putnam, who will entertain them at dinner.

The night before the ball park's formal opening by the Seals and Olympic Club, there will be a big base ball dance at Coney Island Pavilion, put on under the management of the Boyes Springs Hotel. The dance and opening ball game are being widely advertised and should draw record crowds here over that week end.

Canned Heat Jag Ends In County Jail

Michael Kelly, an itinerant pest, took on a cargo of canned heat and became so terribly drunk that he was arrested by local officers and taken to the county jail to recuperate from the "ptomaine poison."

Canned heat evidently is as good as goat glands for making a fellow feel young, for Kelly told the jailer at Santa Rosa that he was 36 years old, although in reality he is nearly 60. Solidified alcohol is what canned heat really is, and "solid ivory" takes it internally.

The novelty of arresting a drunk seemed to interest the officers, who now pass this class of old offenders by in order to make the more fashionable and prevalent pinch of the bootleggers.

DOUBLE CHRISTENING AT LONDON RANCH

Mrs. Jack London Stands God-Mother for Jack London Shepard; Little Sister Also Christened.

A double christening took place at the Jack London ranch Sunday afternoon when Rev. Hanneford of Kenwood christened the two children of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Shepard in the presence of relatives on both sides of the family, including Mrs. Jack London, just home from abroad. Mrs. London stood as god-mother for Jack London Shepard, little two and one-half year old son of her nephew, and Mrs. George Geary was sponsor for Mary Margaret Shepard, her nine-months' old niece. The pretty baby girl wore christening robes sent from Sweden by Mrs. London while on her travels.

Jack London Shepard, like his illustrious namesake, showed little interest in his wearing apparel on this occasion, but was none the less interesting, for he is admittedly a clever child and extremely interesting to Mrs. London, who had not seen him for many months.

Mrs. George Geary, god-mother to Irving Shepard's little girl, is a sister of Mrs. Irving Shepard.

After the pretty ceremony in the living room of the Shepard home, Rev. and Mrs. Hanneford and the London, Shepard and Ranker families adjourned to the dining room where a fine dinner was served. The table was bright with spring flowers and many and sincere were the good wishes for the health, happiness and success of the two pretty children of the household.

Mrs. Shepard was formerly Miss Mildred Ranker, who will be remembered as one of the pretty sisters graduating from the Sonoma high school, whose romance with Jack London's nephew terminated in the happy wedding following the World War, during which Irving Shepard was with the United States Navy and had many thrilling experiences.

The christening party was also a home coming party for Mrs. Jack London, and a farewell to Rev. and Mrs. Hanneford, who are leaving the Valley of the Moon for a new ministerial field.

Mrs. Mary Hagins Run Over By Electric Train At Mill Valley Tuesday

Mrs. Mary Howe Hagins, eldest daughter of the late Hon. Robert P. Howe, who formerly owned Eden Dale Ranch, was run over and killed by an electric train at Mill Valley on Tuesday. Mrs. Hagins had been afflicted with deafness since a child when she had scarlet fever, and failed to heed the approach of one of the suburban trains in the Marin county town where she had been making her home. She was instantly killed and the coroner took charge of the case pending arrangements by the family, including Mrs. Evelyn Waugeman Maloney, daughter of deceased.

The remains were taken to San Rafael, the funeral arrangements being later made at Cypress Lawn Memorial Park, where services were held Thursday afternoon.

Deceased was well known to the older families of Sonoma Valley, where she formerly resided at the beautiful family home near San Luis school, and where she raised her daughter Evelyn, now Mrs. Maloney, who also attended high school here. Evelyn Waugaman Maloney was the daughter of Mrs. Hagin's first marriage.

As one of the daughters of former Senator Robert P. Howe, deceased was educated at a fashionable young ladies' school in the metropolis and developed decided talent for art and painting. She continued to devote herself to this talent throughout her life an it proved a great comfort to her, as her deafness became worse in later years. Some years ago the late Mrs. Hagins was at Boyes Springs and had a studio there for a short time.

Surviving her, in addition to her daughter, who resides at Landsdale, Marin county, are three sisters, Mrs. Asa H. Waugaman, Mrs. Dora McCoy and Miss Zarifa Howe, all of San Francisco.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS PUT ON HIGH JINKS

Members of Sonoma Parlor No. 209, N. D. G. W., had one of the biggest nights in the history of the local organization Monday when they staged their first annual High Jinks at I. O. O. F. Hall, in the presence of about 50 of their members. The jinks followed the initiation of two new members, Misses Zolita Bates and Marie Anderson, the evening being also in the nature of a farewell party to the retiring president, Mrs. Louise Paulson, who goes to San Francisco to make her future home. During the evening, Mrs. Paulson was presented with a dozen silver salad forks as a token of the Parlor's appreciation of her loyal service as head of the organization. Miss Gladys Small, first vice president, will succeed Mrs. Paulson.

Those attending the High Jinks came in highly original and comic costumes which ran the gamut from village cut-up to Rodolph Valentino. The program given in two parts was a tribute to the originality and humor of the participants and was staged under the talented direction of Gertrude Groskopf. Dialogue and songs were composed by the Breitenbach sisters and Sabina Sebastiani, while Miss Dorothy Breitenbach presided at the piano. The program was as follows:

"The Original South Sea Islanders."—Interpreted by Sabina Sebastiani and Dolores Breitenbach.

"Not Much of Anything," comedy skit—Gertrude Groskopf and Rose Bartoli.

"Knocks from the Lodge Gavel."—Recitation by Dolores Breitenbach.

"The Apache Dance."—Interpreted by Dolores Breitenbach and Sabina Sebastiani.

Sabina's Jazz Hounds—
Sabina Sebastiani, saxophone.

MISS HULDA JUSTI WON HOPE CHEST

The magnificent hope chest, awarded by the Glen Ellen Womens Improvement Club Thursday night to the lucky holder of the ticket bought for the Jack London Memorial benefit went to Miss Hulda Justi of Glen Ellen, sister of Judge Leopold Justi. The winning number was 7525.

It was a tense moment as a dainty little Miss cut a deck of cards to determine the number of drawings to be made from the box for the lucky number. A two spot determined that, the second number drawn out should be the one winning the hope chest. The first ticket drawn revealed the holder to have been Frank M. Burris of Sonoma. The second, or winning number, bore the name of Miss Justi.

A splendid crowd was in attendance for the big night, whist being the diversion during the first part of the evening, with dancing later. Among those present was Mrs. Jack London who for the first time glimpsed the interior of the beautiful structure reared by the club women of Glen Ellen to honor her late author husband. She expressed herself as more than delighted and surprised at the substantial and artistic building and warmly congratulated her neighbors and friends on the achievement.

Mrs. London wearing a becoming little gown of French charm and simplicity, which she designed herself while abroad, looked very well after her travels and declared that had it not been for home-sickness she would have enjoyed her year and a half in Europe immensely. "Homesick for America" she was asked? "No, just for my Glen Ellen and the ranch."

Twenty-six tables of players participated in the whist game of the evening, winners being Ed Eberhardt and W. L. Murphy, gentlemen; Mrs. M. Brent and Mrs. B. F. Gore, ladies. Special prizes went to J. H. Weise and Miss Alice Young.

Index-Tribune Classified Ad Found Shoes

If you want to be successful, follow in the footsteps of Index-Tribune advertisers. The latest "find" of a classified booster is a pair of ladies' shoes, advertised as lost in last Saturday's issue and restored to the owner a few hours later.

A Vineburg lady lost the shoes, her wedding shoes by the way, so there was something sentimental as well as practical about her effort to recover them. She paid 25 cents for the Index-Tribune ad and a few hours after the ad appeared the shoes were returned to the office by one of our subscribers. Incidentally the finder received $1 reward for her trouble, so two ladies were made happy by following and utilizing the classiified ads of Sonoma's leading weekly.

THIEVES ROB THE VINEBURG DEPOT

Jimmy Door and Opened Safe, Getting Only $12.00 for Their Trouble; No Trace of the Guilty.

On Friday night of last week the Vineburg depot was entered and robbed between 10 and 11 o'clock. Although residents in the neighborhood of the station heard unusual noises coming from the N. W. P. right of way, they believed it to be some of the company employees and paid little attention.

In the morning tracks of a machine carrying a Diamond tire were seen on the platform before the depot door, which had been broken into. The ticket window had been pried open and in through this the robbers evidently crawled to reach the safe. The inner door of the strong box was opened and Station Agent Van Hewitt found $12.42 missing.

The robbers attempted to jimmy every outer window of the depot, but found them nailed down, former agent Grover Rubke having believed in preparedness. They then effected their entrance through the door.

Van Hewitt, a temporary relief agent on the job, fortunately had taken $50 home the night of the robbery or this amount would have been secured as loot. The $12.42 was the balance of change made by Van Hewitt in selling tickets that afternoon.

Officers were immediately notified but outside of the tire impression made on the dusty railroad platform, there was no clue to thedepot robbers. The Otto Brandt ranch was robbed the same night, an employee losing a number of valuables.

Thieves believed to be the same later in the week robbed the Richmond-San Rafael ferry safe at Point San Quentin.

ASSESSORS WILL GET BUSY ON MONDAY

Next Monday will be the first Monday in March and the assessors of the counties as well as the cities and their deputies, will get busy and the field deputies will take to the field and list the assessable property of the taxpayers of the county for the assessment roll for the new fiscal year.

200 ATTEND YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE DISTRICT INITIATION

Twenty-One Candidates Initiated On Thursday Night; Noted Visitors Accompany Drill Team.

The district initiation of the Young Men's Institute Thursday night was one of the largest affairs given for several years under the auspics of Sonoma Council. There were over 200 in attendance at the brilliant evening at the Woman's Club house. A class of 21 candidates was initiated, 18 of whom were from Sonoma. The initiation ceremonies were put on by a degree team from Pioneer Council No. 1, San Francisco. Other councils participating in the Marin-Sonoma District meeting were Sebastopol, San Rafael, San Anselmo and Petaluma.

The banquet attendance at the Woman's Club house taxed the capacity of the big auditorium, the Young Ladies' Institute being guests of honor and aiding as hostesses to the visitors. Tables were set the entire length of the auditorium with smaller tables in the club parlors. An elegant repast was enjoyed.

Speeches were made by John Steiner, Jr., president of Sonoma Council, who welcomed the guests; by Rev. J. F. Byrne, Past Grand President McGinnis of San Francisco, Grand Directors Reagan and Hannan and others.

Following the banquet there was dancing to a fine orchestra and a social time, pronounced by all the visitors as reflecting true Sonoma Valley hospitality.

LENT BEGINS ON WEDNESDAY

Lent will be ushered in next Wednesday, which is Ash Wednesday, and will be celebrated at St. Francis church as is customary each year.

EL VERANO VILLA TRADED FOR RANCH

Sonoma Valley Resort Changes Hands Twice in Three Weeks; New Owner Is Captain Tullett.

For the second time in three weeks El Verano Villa, pioneer Sonoma Valley resort, has changed hands. This week the recent buyer, Charles Brundage of San Francisco, traded the property to Captain Tullett of Windsor for a $35,000 Sonoma county ranch.

The Villa, picturesquely located on Sonoma creek, was sold by Louis Lamotte early in February to Brundage, who planned to improve it and put the property on the market. He did not have to do so, for its natural attractions, combined with accommodations of eight cottages, with a total of 97 rooms for guests, interested Captain Tullett of Windsor, who made the trade.

Captain and Mrs. Tullett plan to take possession in about two weeks and contemplate extensive improvements. The Villa, prior to its present spectacular place in the realty market, had been conducted continuously for 20 years by Mr. Lamotte.

EL VERANO NEWS
By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

Abe Kemp, sporting editor of the San Francisco Bulletin, and all around sports writer, is in our midst. Kemp is up the Valley telling the story of the boys in training. Abe has great knowledge of the national game and will watch the young contenders who are out for baseball honors, telling his readers of the chances to become famous on the diamond. Other world famous sport writers on the ground are Jack James of the San Francisco Examiner, Ed Hughes of the Chronicle, J. J. Connolly of the San Francisco Call, Tom Laird of the Daily News, and Vic Lee of the San Francisco Herald. After writing up the athletes each day, these scribes hie themselves to the golf links and engage in a lively game of pasture pool. James, of the Examiner, who arranges for the badger fight which is a big event each year in the camp, is looking for a bull pup to oppose the badger. Great interest is being manifested in the proposed fight, and a number of young players have their bid in to release the badger when time is called for the go.

Fred and Chris Thompson, poultry men, transacted business in Santa Rosa last Saturday.

Mrs. T. A. Allison and son of Oakland were week end visitors at their summer home on Nob Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Flood of San Francisco spent several days last week at the Mrs. M. Watts home.

The Seals are hard at their training grind. Almost all the regulars have reported and it is "show your stuff" at the golf links diamond. The athletes are shaping up well in their daily workouts and are trying hard to gain a berth with the pennant winners. Each day after a spirited game, the boys hie themselves to the famous Boyes Springs to enjoy the curative waters, which seem to put lots of pep in the players and limber them up after the daily routine of the diamond.

George West, San Francisco capitalist, was in town the first of the week looking over Sonoma Vista property. It is the intention of Mr. West to build vacation summer cottages on his holdings, the work to commence soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey of Oakland and Miss Mayme Walsh of San Francisco were entertained at the Kearney home Sunday.

A number of San Franciscans were spending the week end at an El Verano summer home, having a good time when something went wrong. Two lads of the party had a disagreement Saturday night and came to blows. One boy received a nice shiner, while the other's beauty was considerably mussed up. Both declared they would continue the battle Sunday morning, but a night's rest calmed their tempers and the jolly bunch returned home Sunday evening, leaving their troubles behind them in El Verano.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Freck and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cliff and family spent Sunday at Dillon's Beach, clam digging and otherwise enjoying the day at this famous outing resort.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Michaelas of Fresno motored to the Sonoma Valley on Sunday and spent the day at the Jaspar home in Sonoma Vista.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Court of San Francisco spent several days at their Sonoma Vista home. Mr. Court is a veteran employee of the Union Iron Works.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sears, nee Turner, newlyweds, after a honeymoon trop to the southern part of the state and Tia Juana, returned to their Sonoma Vista home Sunday, after having enjoyed a nice trip.

Howard Spreckels passed through town last Saturday accompanied by friends from San Francisco, enroute to Sobre Vista Ranch. Spreckels was piloting his new $14,000 Rolls Royce car, which looks to be some road hound.

Harry Lutgens, secretary to Governor Richardson, and wife, were motor visitors to the Morris Ranch from Sacramento Saturday, being guests of the Morrises over Sunday.

P. H. McCarthy and family were at their Sonoma Vista home Saturday, returning home Sunday. The ex-mayor of San Francisco is a dyed-in-the-wool Seal ball enthusiast and watched them do their stuff at the ball gornuds Saturday. McCarthy who is a well known politician, was also the guest of newspaper men and others at the golf club. The McCarthy family will be at their Sonoma Vista home during the vacation months.

Mrs. J. N. Beach of Sonoma Vista was a visitor in San Francisco the first of the week.

Edward Masuoka, little Japanese boy attending our grammar school, was bitten by a dog on the school grounds recently. The little fellow, although badly scared, is again able to attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jensen were here over Sunday. Mr Jensen will dispose of his business in San Francisco shortly and make his permanent home in El Verano.

Deputy Sheriffs Joe Ryan and Eberhardt and Constable John Mohr swooped down on the old city Monday, finding liquor on the premises of Phil Rossi and also at the Bellevue Hotel. Mrs. Vergozini, proprietor of the hotel, and Rossi were cited to appear before Judge Small at Sonoma.

Deputies and other officers of the State Home have been kept busy trying to locate a girl inmate of the home who is about 22 years old and of Spanish descent. She has been missing for several days and has been seen by train crews at stations between here and Santa Rosa in company with a male companion, who is thought to be a Weary Willie with whom the Miss became acquainted since her disappearance from the state institution.

February 22, Washington's birthday, was fittingly observed in this 100 per cent American city. Old Glory floated proudly in the breeze, and the school children enjoyed a holiday. Local business firms closed shop at noon in honor of Washington the father of his country.

Dolph Gull of San Francisco was a Washington's birthday visitor here, registered at Our Resort. He returned to the city Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Baines and Miss Doris motored over to Dillon Beach last Friday and remained until Sunday at their summer cottage on the shores of this world famous seaside resort.

The news that Pat McDonnell of the Spreckels ranch has resigned his position here to go to Tia Juana, where he will oversee a string of the Spreckels thoroughbred race horses at the southern track, is sad news to his many friends here, who wish him success in his new position. Pat was raised on a horse farm across the ocean, and his knowledge of Irish thoroughbred nags should be a great help to the Spreckels stables.

Miss Rose Bosch was spending several days at the Peter Bosch home here recently. Miss Bosch is a stenographer in the bay city and was formerly an El Verano girl. Her many school friends were welcoming her home.

Bert Barrickman of San Francisco and Pat Wyatt of the navy yard at Vallejo were renewing acquaintances in El Verano recently.

Patrons of the S. P. Company one morning last week had a treat when the southbound train pulled into El Verano with 30 tiny men and women ranging from the age of 13 to 40, on board, who were returning from a show put on in Santa Rosa. The largest of these little folks was about the size of a 12 years old boy, while the tiniest was the size of a 4 years old baby. The midgets seemed to be enjoying themselves, smoking cigarettes and playing an honest-to-goodness game of cards.

Ed Dowdall and Bill Preston have leased a 10 acre vineyard and will go into the business of raising grapes. We wish these progressive young men lots of prosperity.

Joe O'Donahue, soft drink manipulator, of San Francisco, was registered at the Helvetia Hotel last week.

Charles Danieli and A. Guibbini were visitors over Washington's birthday in El Verano, returning to San Francisco Sunday.

Bill Sutter of San Francisco was visiting home folks over the week end

Jim Owens, the traveling painter, after a sojourn in his old rod hound which looks all the worse for the trip, to Eastern states, including hard-boiled Oklahoma City, has arrived in town, reporting some trip, some country and lots of grape juice. He will summer in Sonoma Valley. In the old days Shamos was an umpire, gaining fame in professional base ball, and has been looking over the boys at the

"Are you going to the Sciots' circus in Santa Rosa next week?"

"Sure we are going. Why? Because everybody, and everybody's brother and sister wil lbe there."

This conversation can be overheard everywhere in this vicinity these days. Never before has been so much interest shown toward any event as has been aroused by the Sciots' Circus that wlil be presented by the Bob Morton Circus Company, the biggest fraternal professional circus organization in existence, for the charity fund of the Santa Rosa Sciots Pyramid No. 6, starting next Monday, March 3rd, for six merry and hilarious nights at the College Grounds in Santa Rosa.

Only one show will be given each night, beginning next Monday, and ever ynight a automobile wil be given away. The doors open at 6:30 p. m., and the big show starts at 8:15 o'clock sharp.

WALKER NOW OWNS McDONOUGH STOCK CO.

(From Petaluma Courier)

Members of the McDonough Stock Company arrived in Petaluma from Eureka Monday, where they have closed a successful 14 weeks' engagement and had one of the most successful seasons in their history.

F. M. Crabill, who was one of the owners of the company, has sold his interest to Toby Walker, the comedian of the show. Walker will continue to conduct the shows as in the past and expects to visit Petaluma as usual.

BIG DINNER PARTY

The home of the late Senator Kearns in Sonoma Valley, famous for its hospitality in the past years, was again the scene of a large assemblage of guests who were the guests of Wallace L. Ware, widely known attorney and one of the owners of the big ranch, for dinner one night last week, given in honor of the highway commission and a number of immediate friends. This event was in celebration of the building of a new highway through the Valley of the Moon and the acquisition to Sonoma county of the Pythian Home.

The invited guests were Harvey M. Toy, president of the State Highway Commission; Louis Everding, state highway commissioner; R. M. Morton, state highway engineer; John Skeggs, division engineer, state highway commission; Division Engineer Bedford, state highway commission; Dan H. Lafferty, director of the State Automobile Association; Dr. E. O. Jackson, grand chancellor, Knights of Pythias; Superior Judge George Samuel of Oakland, past grand chancellor, K. of P.; Supreme Justice Emmet Seawell, Senator H. W. Slater, Assemblyman Lucien Fulwider, Charles O. Dunbar, J. C. Hoke Smith, Carl Bundschu, President Frank P. Doyle of the Santa Rosa Chamber of Commerce; Frank J. McNamara, Frank M. Burris, W. I. OPPOSES TRANSFER OF YOUTHS TO ELDRIDGE

The transfer of youths from the Preston School of Industry to the Sonoma State Home, deficient in mentality though they may be, is wrong, accordnig to Probation Officer John Plover.

The boys transferred usually are those who have proved to be incorrigible at the school.

Placed in the Eldridge home, Plover says, it is comparatively easy for them to escape. Of 11 transferred not long ago, two have managed to get away, Plover says.

Special care is required for these youths, Plover points out, and the officials at the State home already have their hands full with the growing number of inmates. They are not to be blamed, he said, when these transfer boys make their get away. Plover stated that he will protest further transfers unless the state will take steps to adopt a better method of guarding the youths.

COUNTY SCHOOLS GET $280,580 STATE AID

Sonoma county has profited greatly from the operation of constitutional amendment sixteen, the California school finance measure adopted in 1920. The amendment increased the state aid for schools to $30 per pupil in average daily attendance. The provision of this amount of state aid is now made obligatory by the constitution, and this aid therefore keeps pace with the increase in school attendance. The increase in the state aid represents no increase in the apportionment per pupil, but merely the same amount per pupil on a larger attendance.

Last year, this county had an average daily attendance of 8,292 in the elementary schools and 2,002 in the high schools, and receives this year as its share of the state aid $280,580 for elementary schools and $684,959 for high schools. The increase in average daily attendance for 1922-1923 over 1921-1922 was 2 per cent in the elementary schools and 8 per cent in the high schools, bringing an increase of $5,366 in the total state aid apportioned to the county.

If it were necessary to raise by local tax the amount now furnished form the state funds, it would require an additional tax of 81 cents on the $100 assessed valuation of property subject to county taxes in this county.

The big high school show is scheduled for Friday evening, March 14th. Save the date.—adv.

A WARNING VOICE FROM THE AIR

Out of the air by means of radio came the voice of a railroad engineer the other night preaching "Safety at the Cross Roads."

Would that this voice had been heard by all motorists, or that all car drivers about to cross a railroad track would heed a warning voice,, "the still small voice" perhaps, which would save them from the impulse to take a chance in beating a train to a crossing.

The radio warning given out by Engineer Collett of the Santa Fe, came from the lips of a man who, himself, had killed two people while at the throttle of the locomotive they thought they could beat to the crossing. He saw them too late. The tragedy as recited by the engineer was both horrible and heart rending, the power of the voice as a warning was, indeed, a tribute to radio.

The engineer begged the motoring public to avert such tragedies and plead with his fellow engineers to do all within their power to help cut down the list of accidents by utilizing the whistle, strictly obeying company rules and also urged the wives of railroad men to promote harmony in the home, tracing many fatal railroad accidents to domestic mind-states.

The man at the throttle and the man at the wheel have a dual responsibility. The man at the wheel must take no chances. Remember, a train does not stop, even when you honk your horn at the crossing.

ADJUSTED COMPENSATION FOR EX-SERVICE MEN

In order to fully enlighten the American people on the adjusted compensation bill, which would give ex-service men the so-called "bonus" John R. Quinn, national commander of the American Legion, has issued a pamphlet explaining the measure and how it is expected that the nation can take care of it. The idea of fully informing the public as to this much discussed issue is a good one and should the sooner bring it to an issue:

"The pamphlet, entitled "Why Compensation Is a Just Debt," states as follows:

"The base pay of the enlisted man in the military service in the World War was $30 a month. From this, in the majority of cases, was deducted $15 for allotment to dependents and $6.50 for insurance, leaving a balance of $8.50 of actual monthly remuneration for the most hazardous work on earth. Out of this small sum, more than 80 per cent of the men in uniform bought Liberty bonds on the instalment plan. At the same time, ordinary unskilled workers were drawing from $5 to $10 a day; skilled workers drew from $7 to $25 a day. The soldier had to pay for his own workmen's compensation insurance—a payment which is made obligatory on the employer and not the employee in practically every State in America.

"The soldier came home and found Congress paying manufacturers three billion dollars for profits they might have made on war contracts terminated by the Armistice;

"Congress paying a 'bonus' of $240 a year to each of 150,000 civil employees of the government because of the increased cost of living during the war. These bonuses are still being paid;

"Congress paying the railroads $1,696,000,000 in compensation for loss of profits in war;

"Congress giving the soldier himself just sixty dollars.

"From this the veteran was expected to buy himself a new outfit of civilian clothes, pay off the load of war debts accumulated by his family, and pay his rent and food bills while hunting for a job.

"Congress, after consulting with the American Legion, decided upon an adjusted compensation bill providing a service credit of $1.00 a day for home service and $1.25 a day for overseas service. From this credit is deducted the $60 'bonus' paid each man on discharge. The maximum credit is $500 for home service and $625 for home and foreign service.

"The Adjusted Service Pay. Men who served 110 days or less and therefore would receive $50 or less would be paid in cash. They are the only veterans to be paid in cash The total cost of compensating this group will be $16,000,000. This provision was inserted purely as a measure of administrative economy.

"The Adjuster Service Certificate. The majority of veterans will accept this insurance compensation. It offers the veteran a paid-up endowment policy maturing in 20 years. The face value of the policy is equal to the service credit plus 25 per cent, plus interest at 4 1-2 per cent compounded annually. This makes the value in 20 years or in the event of death 3.015 times the service credit. The policy cannot be transferred to any other person. During the first three years the policy may be used as collateral for a bank loan in case of necessity. The decision whether or not to make a loan rests solely with the banker. After three years the government will loan a percentage of the certificate's value.

"Vocational Training Aid. This feature offers government aid in education that was interrupted by the war. The veteran will get $1.75 for every day of service credit.

"Farm or Home Aid. This offers aid in building, buying, improving or paying debts on a farm or home. The veteran will receive the amount of his service credit plus 25 per cent.

"There is a surplus of $313,000,000 in the treasury.

"The estimated surplus for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1924, is $400,000,000.

"Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, has stated that taxes cannot be reduced if the adjusted compensation bill is passed. Many newspapers have echoed this false sentiment. The result is that the public mind has been mislead. These are the fundamental mathematics of the situation. Mr. Mellon has shown how economies of $323,000,000 in the cost of government may be affected. The cost of compensation in the first three years will not average more than $81,000,000 a year. These figures were supplied by the Finance Committee of the Senate by actuaries of the Treasury Department. Adjusted compensation is a just debt and it has no bearing on other obligations of the government. But by Mr. Mellon's own figures it is clearly shown that when adjusted compensation is paid it will still be possible to reduce government expense $242,000,000 a year. The statement that taxes cannot be reduced if veteran's compensation is adjusted is therefore false.

"Passage of the Adjusted Compensation Bill will allay the dissatisfaction existing among veterans and dispel the sense of injustice they now feel. It will cement their faith in their country, and cement the faith of our future soldiers and sailors. It will insure that the money be spent in productive channels, quickeniing trade and industry."

HARVEY M. TOY TO BUILD HOME

Harvey M. Toy, chairman of the State Highway Commission, is having his country home at Sonoma Vista rebuilt, following the fire of last autumn. The old Nordwell ranch house on his property, where Mr. Toy so often entertained his friends, was destroyed but the San Franciscan is so enthusiastic about the Valley of the Moon that he desires to rebuild.

"IN-AGAIN OUT-AGAIN" FLYNN IS CAPTURED

Jack Flynn, who has the key to the Hotel de Boyes at Santa Rosa and has escaped jail so many times that he is being called "In-again Out-again" Flynn, was recaptured Friday night of last week after his third escape from the Sonoma county jail in recent weeks. Flynn was caught by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan as he was making his get-away down the railroad track toward Schellville.

The deputy sheriff, accompanied by R. E. Mullen, special detective, left his car at Schellville and decided to follow the S. P. tracks to Glen Ellen making a search for the elusive Flynn for whom every officer in the county was then searching.

As Ryan and Mullen neared the former Tate ranch a man came walking along the track and Ryan flashed his searchlight on him. The stranger proved to be Flynn, wearing a red sweater which had been given as one of his marks of identification. Ryan who had recaptured him once before, instantly recognized him and commanded him to throw up his hands. With the assistance of Mullen the prisoner was handcuffed and brought to town. Flynn declared Ryan was his jinx.

There was general rejoicing when he was returned to the bastile t Santa Rosa.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Thursday, February 21st, a George Washington program was given. The program was opened with a musical number by the orchestra, after which followed the reading of a poem by Norman Heggie, and of essays on the life and greatness of Washington by Evelyn Cordell and Mary Tomlinson. The medal given by the Illinois Watch Company for the best short essay on Abraham Lincoln, was awarded to Anna Noyes by Miss Bloom. "The Star Spangled Banner," sang by the Student Body, fittingly concluded the program.

Roy Wirtz, president of the Student Body, awarded medals to Gertrude Rhode and Leola Forni of the second year typing class who successfully typed a specified number of words per minute. Certificates of Achievement were awarded Marguerite Froment, Beatrice Boyd and Irma Cliff for having typed at a certain speed for a given length of time. More awards will be made in the near future.

Friday evening the Juniors entertained the Student Body and parents at their class party in the tastefully decorated auditorium. A delightful program, arranged by the third year students, was given, after which dancing was enjoyed. Everyone declared the Juniors were splendid entertainers and the guests were reluctant to leave.

Wednesday afternoon in the weekly assembly, the Student Body held a musical program in observance of National Song Week. The program arranged by Mr. Campbell, was for the purpose of interesting more pupils in the orchestra. The performance included orchestra numbers, instrumental solos by Ella Fox and Cecil Hunter, and songs by the girls' chorus. There are a good many Seniors in our orchestra now, and they will leave a large vacancy when they graduate this June. Mr. Campbell is already teaching students and is desirous of obtaining more who will join the orchestra next year.

TED WHITLOW DIED IN ARIZONA THIS WEEK

Ted Whitlow, former well known base ball star and bank employee died in Arizona this week where he had been living several years in the hopes of regaining his health.

Six years ago Whitlow married Miss Dorothy MacFarlane, a former Sonoma girl, who survives him in addition to a little son, Robert Whitlow. A baby girl born to the couple died of influenza while they were living in San Rafael.

The funeral of deceased took place from the Marin county city on Thursday, the body having been brought there from Arizona for interment in Mt. Tamalpais cemetery.

Whitlow's failing health cut short a career of much promise. The young man had won many honors in athletics and was also successful in the San Francisco banking firm where he was highly regarded by his employers.

When he was ordered to take up his residence in Arizona his wife and baby went with him and his wife remained devoted to him throughout his long illness.

The sad homecoming with the body of the young husband and father was a trying ordeal for the family and friends of deceased. Among those who went down from here to the funeral was Miss Mary Springer.

Theodore Whitlow was only twenty eight years of age.

MAY DAY CARNIVAL PROGRESS REPORTED

The coming May Day Carnival at Boyes Springs promises to attract a big crowd to the valley over the May Day week end and elaborate plans are being made for the entertainment of guests.

A change in the little May Day Queen was made necessary by the request of all schools that they be allowed to participate. Flowery District had chosen Alfreda Smith, but the committee decided to re-open the children's contest and permit all the districts to vote for May Day queen.

BOYES SPRINGS HOTEL TIE-UP

A contest for the controlling interest in the Boyes Hot Springs Hotel Company, and a difference in policy as regards the cost of the hotel building is said to be the cause of the present tie-up of the big work. R. G. Lichtenberg holds the control at the present time and is standing out for a modern new hotel which can cater to high class trade. He declares that the old hotel was inadequate and that he lost lots of business because the accommodations were not modern enough to compete with other high class health resorts.

CELEBRATION COMMITTEE HAD IMPORTANT MEETING

The Mission Centennial executive committee had an important meeting Wednesday night. The celebration deficit has been greatly reduced and it was decided to continue the effort to collect on the small number of outstanding debts until March 10th. Obligations still unpaid after that date will be turned over to the committee's attorney with instructions to bring suit for collection where necessary.

SCHOOL ELECTIONS THIS MONTH

Announcement of school elections in both High School and Sonoma Grammar school districts are made in this issue of the Index-Tribune. The election date is March 28th.

The city election and vote on the Plaza tax will be held April 14th.

Voters should register at once if they expect to vote at the coming election. Residents of Sonoma city precincts should see to it that their neighbors and friends who are eligible also register and work for the majority necessary to carry the Plaza improvement.

THE SONOMA VALLEY IMPROVEMENT CLUB

The regular Wednesday evening whist party is growing in popularity as evidenced by its increased attendance. The little dance at the close of the game is much appreciated by both young and old.

We are glad to say that our old friend, Jim Clarke, who sustained a fracture of the leg, is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Evans was the recipient of a shower at the residence of Mrs. M. Y. Hansen, who received the guests, assisted by Mrs. J. J. Northmore. Society turned out en masse. Mrs. Evans desires to acknowledge the kindness of her many friends through the medium of your valuable paper.

M. Y. Hansen, who was nominated for school trustee last meeting is making an energetic fight for the office, displaying the same pep with which he conducts his business.

CHIEF CAUSE ELECTED DEPUTY FIRE MARSHAL

Fifty fire department chiefs of northern California met in San Francisco Wednesday at the call of State Fire Marshal J. W. Stevens. Under a law passed at the last Legislature, the State Fire Marshal was appointed by Gov. Richardson. He in turn appointed deputies throughout California to aid in cutting down the fire hazard. Among the deputies named Wednesday was Chief W. B. Cause of the Boyes Springs and Valley Fire Department. The State fire Warden will cooperate with city and town departments to prevent fire loss through out California.

Chief Murphy of San Francisco was named a deputy from that city.

The fire chiefs heard a number of excellent talks and were guests of the P. G. & E. Co. at a banuqet.

A picture of Chief Cause appeared in Thursday's Examiner. His affiliation with the new fire safety bureau will be a fine thing for Sonoma Valley and the county in general.

"WET" MARYSVILLE

(From California Liberator)

Marysville has decided to be wet. In the election, January 21st, the city elected three councilmen, two wet and one dry. The two hold-overs are also wet. It is interesting to know that the one dry is a school principal; the four wets are, one a saddler, one a restaurant keeper and two former policemen.

It is also interesting to know that the issue must have been perfectly clear. Watson, the restaurant man, had recently paid a fine of $300 as a bootlegger and at the time of the election he was up before the superior court on another charge of violating the Wright Act a charge to which he pleaded not guilty and on which he was to be tried January 30. The bootlegger received four more votes than the school principal.

On January 30, the jury in the superior court returned a verdict of "not guilty" in the case of the bootlegging councilman-elect. The meaning of this verdict of acquittal is made plain by the remarks of Superior Judge McDaniel.

"Like yourselves, I listened to the testimony in this case, and while my conclusion differs from yours, I am not surprised at the verdict."

The court then denounced the citizen who will take an oath to be guided by the law and evidence in a trial and then wink at the facts. It means, he said, the breaking down of the bulwark of the American nation and the setting of a deplorable example for the rising generation. He did not care if Watson was recently elected to office, or even if he were Governor of the State, or occupying higher office, he believed the evidence did not support the jury's verdict of acquittal. He lauded Police Officer Lewis M. Allen for his extraordinary bravery in fearlessly testifying to the facts as he found them. Allen is one of the officers looking to re-appointment on the police force at the hands of the council to which the defendant Watson was elected January 21st.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED

A very delightful party was given on Thursday night of last week by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Agnew at their home on Seventh street, Petaluma, in honor of their 20th wedding anniversary. Twenty guests were present who came dressed in old fashioned costumes, one of the costumes worn being 75 years old. Mrs. Dora Baker and Mrs. Will Lewis were awarded prizes for the best sustained characters.

Card were played and the highest scores were made by Mrs. A. Behrens and Will Lewis.

Refreshments were served, after which danciing and music were enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Agnew are among the best known residents of Petaluma and are very popular. They were congratulted and on their departure the guests wished they might enjoy many more years of married life.

PROGRESS ON THE CARQUINEZ BRIDGE

The sinking of the mammoth cofferdam which will shut out the rushing waters of Carquinez Straits during the construction of Pier No. 4 of the $4,000,000 Carquinez Bridge, took place on Thursday afternoon of last week.

The cofferdam, when completed, will be the largest in the world, according to engineers. It is of the dimensions of a five story building occupying an entire lot 52x147 feet.

Of watertight construction the huge cofferdam has already grown to immense proportions and after being sunk to its present height will be added to until it strikes the bottom of the straits.

As soon as the dam is completed concrete will be poured to make the first pier.

Several hundred business men of Vallejo, Crockett, Richmond, Napa and Sacramento were on hand for the event.

Motion pictures of the event were taken by the leading news reel companies and 60 workmen will rush the cofferdam to completion for the pouring of the concrete.

The process through which the supporting piers come into being is one that involves a great deal of labor and equipment, according to contractors.

When the cofferdam is completed its own weight, aided by sharp steel shoes, will carry it down to hardpan; a slam-shell dredger will clear this all away and 70 foot re-inforced concrete piles wil lbe driven to bedrock.

With the piles driven in place concrete will be poured over the ends to to make the entire enclosure of the cofferdam solid steel and concrete to a height of 10 feet and from this great slab of stone 52x10x147 feet will rise the two supporting columns of concrete to a point 15 feet above higher water to receive the structural steel supports which will rise 135 feet to the floor of the bridge.

ENCOURAGING TO STOCKHOLDERS

F. B. Frasier, president of the Rainbow End Oil and Refining Company, has just received very encouraging news from the Santa Monica well which the company is now drilling near Los Angeles. The well is showing considerable ail and they are setting their casing to see what they have in quantity. This well has been showing signs of oil every day and on Wednesday of last week gushed oil to the extent that it was thought better to shut off the water and see if they have not an oil well.

People are looking for acreage all around the lease and the Standard and Union Oil Companies are making investigation.

SPRECKELS' HOME WILL BE REMODELED

A. B. Spreckels, owner of the Napa Stock Farm, is having his large country home, below Napa, remodeled. Household furnishings are being removed from the housue to allow contractors to tear away part of the main building and construct in its place a largge addition. The improvements will cost about $75,000.

GOLDEN GATE FERRY SERVICE

It is believed by the management of the Golden Gate Ferry Company, operating an auto ferry between San Francisco and Sausalito, that the summer of 1924 will bring a heavier tide of auto travel than has ever been known.

Announcement has been made by H. E. Speas, vice president of the Golden Gate Ferry Company, that effective April 1, 1924, the company will operate practically a continuous service. The first boat will leave Sausalito at 4:30 p. m., and the last boat will leave San Francisco, foot of Hyde street, at 1 o'clock the following morning. Another ferry boat will be operated 16 hours daily and three will be operated Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday, giving on those four days 20 minute serviice during the rush hours. Extra trips will be made according to the requirements of the service and the needs of the traveling public.

It is believed by the management of the company that a boat leaving San Francisco at 1 o'clock will be a big help to the north bay distriict and the early boats from Sausalito will be helpful to shippers of freight and motorists who desire to get an early start south.

K. K. K. WILL HOLD A MEETING IN NAPA

(From Napa Register)

The local committee of the Ku Klux Klan, having in charge the arrangements of leasing a hall in Napa for the purpose of having their Grand Lecturer, James Rush Bronson, of national reputation, address the public on the subject, "The Aims and Objects of the Ku Klux Klan," desire to announce that they have been unable to engage a suitable hall in Napa and that they are obliged to hold an open air meeting close in to Napa.

Those holding tickets will be instructed by the local Klansmen in due time as to where this meeting will take place.

SPRECKELS CONGRATULATED

Adolph B. Spreckels has been receiving congratulations galore for the good luck his Voorgold had on the Tia Juana track the other day. Voorgold not only won by a nose, but those who bet on him came off with big money, as he was a 119-to-1 shot. If you read of such a win in fiction you would pass it by as one of those foolish stories, but this was true. On each Mutuel ticket at $2 the holder got $240. The top price thus far in the Tia Juana season.

Service at Trinity Church, Sunday, March 2nd, at 8:15 P. M. The Rev. Wm. S. Short will officiate. All are welcome.

WAS RELEASED ON CASH BAIL

Joe Barbosa of Sebastopol, arrested on Sunday by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan and charged with driving an auto on the Sonoma highway while intoxicated, was released on $600 cash bail on Tuesday pending his trial which will be held in the superior court.

STOCK DISEASE CAUSES QUARANTINE IN STATE

Eiht thousand five hundred head of livestock in Alameda, Solano and Contra Costa counties have been found to have the hoof and mouth disease, according to G. H. Heck, state agricultural commissioner. Four counties are quarantined and 17 are under provisional quarantine.

Stock infected will be killed as soon as burial trenches can be dug. Twenty-five hundred cattle and 6000 hogs are infected.

Two ranches in Solano county and 24 in Alameda and Contra Costa are affected.

Slaughter houses are using all precautions possible.

The outbreak is the first in the history of California and the first in the United States since 1914. Pigeons killed are thought to have spread the disease.

A request for an appropriation of $2,000,000 to combat the disease will be made in Congress. The next legislature will be asked for an appropriation to reimburse farms for stock killed.

There is no reason for alarm, accordin to Heckk.

golf links and pronounces some of the players as good prospects. Owens umpired the greatest of games among the big leaguers in his time, and also could handle the stock and stop 'em when it came to playing ball.

Mrs. A. Swensson is shopping and visiting in San Francisco.

A fine warm spring Sunday brought out a large crowd of lovers of base ball at the first golf club diamond, in North El Verano. The Seals put on a good practice game, which was full of pep, to the delight of the large audience. After five innings, the score tallied—Ellisons 5, and Hendryx 5. About 100 inmates of the Eldridge State Home came down to see the Seals work out and enjoyed the game immensely. Manager Ellison, the big-hearted Seal, presented the little fellows with a number of baseballs and it was quite a sight to see the little boys gather around the ball player. A dog fight following the ball game caused considerable excitement for a short time, the crowd resenting the wallop someone handed the Airedale in the scrap.

Frank Kandutti of San Francisco, and Sophie Volker of El Verano, were married Monday at Napa City. The groom is a bay city business man while the bride is a ranch owner west of here. After a honeymoon trip to the South, the happy couple will make their home in El Verano.

MRS. TATE'S NIECE TO DIRECT MARDI GRAS

An elaborate program of entertainment will feature the Mardi Gras celebration to be given by Knights of Columbus this evening, March 1st, in the civic auditorium. An array of professional and society talents will be seen in the various acts to be staged on the auditorium platform between Mardi Gras dancers.

Mrs. Lorraine Wise Finegan, former San Francisco girl and musical comedy star, will direct the brilliant "Spirit of the Mardi Gras," to be one of the unique acts. Mrs. Finegan has taken active part in army and navy social affairs in the Philippines where she has been residing ith her husband, Lieutenant James Finegan, U. S. N., stationed with the madical corps at Manila, and she recently presented a magnificent pageant in the island capital.—San Francisco Chronicle.

The talented dancer and director is a niece of Mrs. James Tate of Sonoma and has appeared here at club benefits.

MISS HAHMANN DIES SUDDENLY

While chatting with a friend in the Santa Rosa public library Tuesday morning, Miss Paulina L. Hahmann, member of one of Santa Rosa's oldest and best known families, dropped dead, the victim of heart failure.

At the time of her sudden death at 11:30, Miss Hahmann was chatting with Mrs. Joseph Shaw in the library, when suddenly she was stricken by death.

An inquest was held almost immediately, and a verdict of death caused by angina pectoris rendered on statements of Dr. J. W. Clark, that he had been treating Miss Hahmann for some months for heart trouble.

Miss Hahmann, although she had been troubled considerably with heart trouble for some months, was apparently in good health up to the very minute of her sudden death.

She was a member of a pioneer family, having been born in Santa Rosa. The house in which the family made their home stood on the same lot where the present family residence stands, and it was there that Miss Hahmann first saw the light of day. She was the daughter of the late F. G. Hahmann and the late Mrs. Henrietta Hahmann. Her early education was in the public schools and like so many Santa Rosans, was a student in the old Fremont school, then known as the Fourth Street school. After being graduated from high school she received her finishing and higher branches of education at Miss Chase's seminary, the exclusive girls' school in Santa Rosa for the past generation.

In former years the Misses Hahmann visited the Pauli family in Sonoma, and more lately were frequent guests of the late Mrs. Dora Stofen and daughter.

LOCAL EXPRESS IS SHIPPING BABY CHICKS

Local agent of the American Express Company, R. C. Bancroft, is following orders permitting the shipment of baby chicks from this valley. A Petaluma dispatch states:

The hatchery men of this city and vicinity are heaving sighs of relief for the edict has gone forth to the effect that baby chicks may be shipped as usual despite the quarantine, and thus severe loss not only to the hatchers and producers but to the future of the poultry and egg industry for the coast is averted. The new order was obtained through the efforts of Dr. Cliff D. Carpenter, who worked hard to secure a ruling, following the orders received by the American Railway Express agent and other local agents, not to take any poultry for shipment.

Dr. Carpenter succeeded in getting permission from Dr. Iverson, chief of the State Bureau of Animal Industry, and Dr. Snider, in charge of the Federal Bureau of Animal Industry for this state with headquarters in Oakland, for the shipment of baby chicks from Petaluma hatcheries to various points in the state and west.

FAVORS CO-OPERATIVE APPLE GROWERS PLAN

Penn Taylor, wholesale paper representative, well known here where he married a former Sonoma girl, is also an apple grower of the Sebastopol district and what's more, he is a business man. He declares that he is in the Apple Growers' Association to stay and believes that the Apple Union headed by J. P. McDonnell is an organization which will eventually put the apple business on a good basis if members will stay with it.

"I took a loss last year," declared Taylor, "and am willing to take another if necessary this season because of my faith in the ultimate success of the plan of co-operative selling."

Mr. Taylor predicted a better year for Sonoma county farmers than last, pointing out the cleaning up of the prune crop, dried apricots and apples and a demand for hay. He travels extensively for his firm when not superintending his farm, and ought to know.

FORMER RESIDENT KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Sonoma Valley friends of Mr. and Mrs. M. Sokalay, who went to Los Angeles to reside some time ago, will be shocked to learn that Mrs. Sokalay was killed in an automobile accident in the southern California city last December.

Deceased was a vivacious and pretty woman, a native of Vienna and made many friends during her residence here, where her husband was an employee of the Adler furniture factory and planing mill. Mr. Sokalay, possessed of a beautiful tenor voice, gave a song recital during his residence here which will long be remembered by music lovers.

The Public (through the Railroad Commission) fixes the rates, which are made to cover "costs," including taxes.

The tax matter deeply affects every customer of the Company, because taxes are a legitimate expense in the cost of doing business and are reflected in the rates for service.

During the years of 1920, 1921 and 1922, the P G and E paid $9,515,216.00 for taxes, or an average of about $8,689.70 per day, being 20 per cent of its net revenue.

Money saved to the Company in taxes from efficiency in government—City and County, State and National—can be saved to the consumers in rates.

JERSEY MILK

Recent Discovery Favors Jersey Milk

DR. McCollum of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md., finds after eleven years' experiment that butterfat is the most valuable human food.

Jersey milk contains 5.36% butterfat, highest of all cows' milk.

Try one weeks supply to and you will never change to any other kind.
